

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, our state's senior citizens and persons with disabilities are vital members of our families, our society, and our communities; and

WHEREAS, tragically, these residents are often vulnerable to assault, burglary, fraud, and other crimes because they cannot provide for their own care or protection; and

WHEREAS, the Omnibus Adult Protection Act protects vulnerable disabled and elderly persons by creating a system for reporting, investigating, and prosecuting adult abuse, neglect, and exploitation and by allowing law enforcement to take adults into protective custody when necessary; and

WHEREAS, the 2007 observance of Vulnerable Adult Awareness Month reminds us of our shared responsibility to ensure the health, safety, dignity, and well-being of all disabled and elderly adults.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim February 2007 as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to support the worth and dignity of all individuals and to work together to secure the right of all our residents to live free of abuse, neglect, and exploitation.
